Andrea Moattar

Everyday she walks past the doors of the finest design showrooms in town, and at her own digs in ADAC, she can help you select the gloriously rich rug you'll want to design an entire room around. But Andrea Moattar, the Moattar, Ltd., heir whose everyday attire consists of Seven blue jeans and a pair of couture high heels (and whose 16-year-old cat Bella is the winner of her everyday affection), is equally discerning when it comes to her own tastes.
